SIERRA MADRE, CALIF. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1951

Around the Square

Sam did it.

The light pouring into the PE Depot evenings comes from two 100-watt spotlights mounted atop Sam Perlof's Royal Drugstore.

Mr. Perlof, a director in the local Chamber of Commerce, rose to the occasion last week after the City Council withheld action for the present on the Chamber's request to install a light in the depot for the safety of night bus passengers—particularly women passengers. Instead, the Council voted to trim a pepper tree which they say blocks the street light from the station.

It didn't cost $100 either, Mr. Councilmen.

A classified ad in this week's NEWS states:

"Lady with little dog, partly employed, needs small, plain living quarters."

Ah—but what type of work does your dog do, madam?

Another ad goes like this: "Writer with well-behaved grizzly bear urgently needs 2-3 bedroom house."

Must be in quiet district as noise scares bear. Have 2 sober youngsters who sleep in garage. Bear has top references... No Comment.

...The Norris twins of Sierra Madre—are currently being seen at Southland theatres in a brief music sequence of the picture, "Grounds for Marriage." Nice going, girls.

Everything else has failed so why not give Brotherhood a try? Definition: Brotherhood includes understanding, forbearance, and—yes, even friendship—with peoples of all nationalities, creeds, and races. Now's a good time to start, since it's National Brotherhood Week, Feb. 18 to 25.

The pot roast was "well done" Friday afternoon.

So well done, in fact, that the city's two fire trucks were called out to fight the reported fire at 76 Olive.

The "fire" turned out to be mostly smoke, and volunteer firemen promptly left the scene.

RAID HORN TEST CALLED 'ADEQUATE'

Saturday noon's test of the air raid warning horn here was considered "adequate until better equipment is available," local civilian defense officials announced this week.

Instead of a series of staccato "toots," however, Sierra Madres heard longer, prolonged blasts on the fire horn.

Mayor William A. Kinney explained that because of limited air pressure, it was necessary to space the "toots," to cover the three-minute period required.

Council Lets Rubbish Contract to Avedesian

Sierra Madre this week gave up its rubbish-collection business. After operating on its own for more than two months, the city decided that maybe private contractor John Avedesian's bid wasn't so bad after all.

The City Council accepted Mr. Avedesian's bid Tuesday night. The contract calls for a charge of 78 cents on each residential water meter per month, for the first 2 cubic yards of combustible rubbish. For each additional 2 cubic yards, another 40 cents will be charged.

The contract provides for a commercial rate of $1.25 a month, assuming pickups of 1/4 cubic yards three times weekly.

Last week, the councilmen had indicated that they were "thinking seriously" of refusing the bid and continuing in the rubbish business themselves.

But after a 35-minute recessed discussion at last Thursday's

Muir College Will Stage Dance Here

Sierra Madre will become a "college town" Saturday night, Feb. 24, when John Muir College stages its second major Associated Student Body dance of the semester at the local Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

"The Big Apple," scheduled for 9 to 12 p. m., marks one of the first times Sierra Madre has been the scene of an official college event.

Apple trees, park benches lining the dance floor, a giant lighted apple in the center of the room, and plenty of apple cider and doughnuts will welcome Muirites to the back-wards dance.

Music will be provided by Darrell Brewer's seven-piece band.

Invited to chaperone the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Blodgett of Pasadena, and two Sierra Madre couples, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marmion.

Committee members planning the event includes Chairman Nancy Elward, social affairs commissioner; Jean Dugan, decorations; Pat Yarbrough, publicity chairman; and Margaret Watkins, refreshments.

Justus Krafft, Member of 1st Council, Dies

Justus Krafft, 87, a member of Sierra Madre's first City Council, passed away early Monday morning.

Mr. Krafft, a resident here since 1905, lived at 448 W.

Highland. He was a native of Frankfurt, Germany.

The pioneer Sierra Madrean was a member of the first Council—it was called the Board of Trade then—when the city was incorporated on Feb. 2, 1907.

Last March, Mr. Krafft retired from active business life—after serving 67 years with one Los Angeles firm. He had been an employee of Haas, Baruch and Company since 1883 when

Local Camp Cooke Men to Go Overseas

Two former Sierra Madre National Guardsmen this week were transferred from Southern California's 40th Infantry Division at Camp Cooke to a port of embarkation for shipment to the Far Eastern Command.

The two local soldiers were Pvt. Charles Mundell, 382 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, and Pfc. Michael H. Cunningham, 645 Canyon Crest Drive. They at present are home on 7 to 14 day leaves prior to repatriating to the port.

Major Gen. Daniel H. Hudelson, commander of the division, said the two enlisted men and the 600 to 700 other men being sent overseas have completed basic and advanced individual training and other training especially required for overseas movement. In addition, they were given some battle indoctrination.

PAINTED CURBS TO END NEED FOR NAVIGATOR

Strangers to Sierra Madre won't need a navigator to find their way around after the program of Acting Director of Public Works Glen Watson is put into effect.

Mr. Watson hopes to have the names repainted on many of Sierra Madre's street corner curbs, beginning with Sierra Madre boulevard and Baldwin, Vista Circle Drive, and Alta Vista Drive.

Councilman Noren Eaton termed the latter two streets the "most confusing areas in town." It is understood a "definite program" of street sign repainting will be undertaken.

Employees of the street department this week tried out a luminous paint, visible at night, for the intersection of Baldwin and Sierra Madre boulevard.

Purchases of a special water meter and metering structure were authorized by the City Council this week. They will be used for the city's nearly-completed water diversion structure in the Big Santa Anita Canyon.

The meter, expected to cost $970, must conform with specifications of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District.

City School's ADA Figure Below County

Figures showing the total current expense per pupil in Average Daily Attendance (ADA) for the past school year, 1949-50, were received this week from County Superintendent of Schools C. C. Trillingham.

The amount for the Sierra Madre City School District was $194.12, Superintendent Charles A. Skutt, announced. The county average was $209.56. Mr. Skutt said that throughout Los Angeles County, these costs range from $135.40 to $544.78.

"Our 1949-50 ADA figure of $194.12 compares very favorably with the 1948-49 figure of $189.00," Superintendent Skutt said, "when the increased costs of services and materials are taken into consideration."

Deadline March 2 In Queen Contest

Entries in the 1951 Wistaria Queen and court contest close next Friday, March 2. Mrs. Virginia Pratt, secretary of the Wistaria Vine Association, reminded local young women this week.

The queen and her court will reign during the annual Wistaria Festival. The round of social activities they take part in includes special appearances at movie studios, radio and TV shows.

Kiwanians Back School Tax Action

A resolution expressing support of the School Board's action in proposing a tax rate increase for the City School District was adopted by the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club Tuesday.

The resolution, proposed by Kiwanian John E. Conzelman, was phrased and passed at Tuesday's regular noon luncheon.

Rev., Mrs. Dewey Mulholland Named Missionaries to Brazil

The Rev. and Mrs. Dewey Mulholland have been appointed missionaries to north Brazil by the Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

In a special commissioning service last week in Chicago, following a week of physical and doctrinal examinations, the Mulhollands were appointed with 14 others who will go to nine other mission fields throughout the world.

Following his graduation from Fuller Theological Seminary this May, Rev. Mulholland, at present the assistant pastor at Bethany Church, will begin deputation work in the West Coast area.

Upon obtaining their support and equipment they will leave for Sao Luiz, Brazil, for a year's study of the Portuguese language. They then will begin their work in the interior cities of Piaui state.

Departure of the Mulhollands will mark the third couple from Bethany Church to leave for missionary work in recent years. The Harvey Strankses are now serving in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan under the Sudan Interior Mission. Tom and Hildegard Mitchell work with university students in Japan under the auspices of the Evangelical Alliance Mission.

City May Make Microfilms of Vital Records

The City Council took steps last week to preserve the vital records of Sierra Madre in the event of an air raid or other disaster.

Members of the Council voted to reserve storage space in the county's special vaults at City Terrace.

Wayne Allen, chief administrative officer of the county, invited Sierra Madre to make microfilm copies of all the important documents, ordinances, and minutes and include them in the underground vault.

'Epidemic' of Flat Tires Hits Sierra Madre

Police reported an epidemic of flat tires over the weekend, presumably the work of pranksters.

The used car lot of Carl Hansen, 120 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, was the "target" on both Saturday and Sunday nights. On Saturday, all four tires of five cars on the lot were deflated and several radiators and gas caps stolen, Mr. Hansen said.

In spite of a flood light which he left burning the next night, the tires of two other cars were deflated Sunday.

Two other residents, Mrs. Shadforth, 382 W. Montecito, and Paul Burton, 31 E. Alegria, also complained that the air was let out of their car tires Sunday night.

'KICKOFF RALLY' PRECEDES OFFICIAL START THURSDAY

Sierra Madre Red Cross Fund Campaign workers and district captains will take part in a "kickoff rally" Monday, Feb. 26, 10 a. m., at the Woman's Clubhouse.

The rally will signal the start of the 1951 fund campaign to collect Sierra Madre's Red Cross quota of $6416. The drive officially begins Thursday, Mar. 1.

Campaign workers will meet with local ARC Chapter officials including R. C. Lewis, chapter chairman; Carl Hansen, 1951 fund campaign chairman; and Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary of the local chapter.

Coffee and coffeecake will be served during the rally, and workers will hear one or two short talks and view a film.

National goal of the ARC drive is $85,000,000 of which Sierra Madre's portion is $6416.

Mr. Hansen, local drive chairman, said that this year's job is "the biggest ever undertaken by the Red Cross."

According to E. Roland Hariman, national ARC president, "the 27 per cent raise over last year's national quota is due entirely to the enormous load placed on the Red Cross by expanding military forces and by the civil defense program."

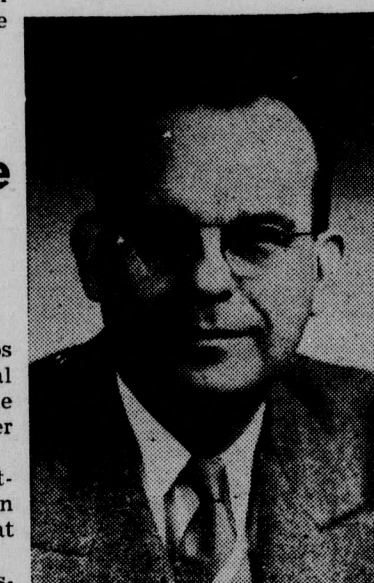

Mr. Hansen urges every resident to give to or share their donations with the local chapter since any contribution made outside Sierra Madre—with the exception of city, county, and state employees—does not return for use in Sierra Madre.

Kiwanis Club To Hear ARC Administrator

Guest speaker at next Tuesday noon's luncheon of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club will be Louis Frederick Hackemann, assistant personnel service administrator for the American Red Cross.

Dr. Hackemann, who is in charge of developing in-service training programs for the National Red Cross, both in the United States and overseas, will tell Kiwanians of the importance of Red Cross work.

While overseas with the Red Cross, he acted as assistant regional executive in Northern

Local Men Attend Bankers' Conference

Three representatives of the Bank of Sierra Madre attended the Bank Conference of the Independent Bankers' Association held this week at the Biltmore.

Present at the conference were R. C. Lewis, president, Al E. Morgan, vice-president, and David H. Allen. Sessions were held on Thursday, Friday, and Monday. Mr. Lewis was present at the concluding session on Monday.

Keynote speaker was Reno Odlin, president of the Puget Sound National Bank of Tacoma. His subject: "What Can Banking Do About It?"

New Route For Busses?

A new, more extensive route for the Pacific Electric buses in Sierra Madre was suggested at last week's meeting of the City Council.

It was proposed that the busses be re-routed to go down to Mountain Trail—or even as far as Santa Anita Drive—north to Highland or Grandview and back to the Depot.

The Chamber of Commerce has suggested that the bus line be extended to Santa Anita to tap additional homes and afford transportation to the local business district.

Councilman Herman Barter pointed out, however, that so far PE has opposed such a

Residents Get Information On Civilian Defense Here

Sierra Madre has done a good job in its civilian defense program, but has done only about 50 per cent of what is necessary. That was the opinion of Robert B. Heuer, principal speaker at the "town meeting" on civilian defense attended by approximately 500 Sierra Madres last Wednesday night.

Mr. Heuer, who is deputy administrator of the County Disaster Authority, said "the next vital steps" Sierra Madres must take in preparing themselves are enrolling in first aid classes and volunteering for duties as block wardens, stretcher bearers, auxiliary firemen, and other important jobs.

He advised everyone to continue to go about his daily duties, pleasures, but to be prepared as it is not known when trouble will come.

"It may be within the next five minutes or the next five years," Mr. Heuer stated. Brief talks were given by division chiefs of the Sierra Madre Civilian Defense Council. Moderator for the evening was Mayor William A. Kinney, recently designated director of civilian defense.

John Conzelman presented a resume of the pamphlet "Survival Under Atomic Attack" and pointed out that the best thing to do in event of a bombing was to close all doors and windows and stay in the house if sufficient warning is received. He listed these five points to remember as safety rules:

1. Keep rubbish cleaned up since it is a fire hazard;
 2. Know your own home, where the safest places are;
 3. Have emergency equipment, including a fire extinguisher, easily available;
 4. In case of bombing, close all doors and windows and keep them closed for several hours after a bombing;
 5. Use the telephone only in case of a "true emergency."
- A question and answer period followed the regular portion of the program.

OVERSEAS FUND TO START HERE

Cardboard money containers for the fund to aid Sierra Madre servicemen overseas will be placed in local stores today or tomorrow.

Residents have been asked to donate generously to the fund which will buy personal articles and petty "luxuries" local men serving abroad would not be able to have otherwise.

A committee consisting of Al E. Morgan, Ralph Burns, Manuel de la Torre, and Louis LaLone is spearheading the community project.

Gladys Carter Wins Life P-TA Membership

Life membership in the Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association was won Thursday by Mrs. Gladys K. Carter, 666 N. Mt. Wilson Trail.

The coveted award, which is given one resident each year for outstanding service in the field of education or youth activities, was presented Mrs. Carter at the annual Founders' Day pot-luck luncheon Thursday noon.

Mrs. Carter was commended for her many years of working with children and providing leadership in Camp Fire Girl and Day Camp programs of Sierra Madre.

She was a kindergarten teacher at City School for five years and served as president of the local P-TA in 1936-37.

Mrs. Carter attended Pasadena High School and received her bachelor's degree at Broad Oaks School. She completed graduate study at USC and UCLA.

Funds derived from the life membership awards of the P-TA go into a special scholarship fund to help needy youths through college.

Speaker at the luncheon was Clayton Shehorn, a teacher at Meylar School in San Pedro. Mr. Shehorn, who specializes in dealing with both mentally retarded and exceptionally brilliant pupils, was benefited in his advanced study by the life membership scholarship fund of the P-TA.

Saturday Is 'Have a Heart' Day in Town

Saturday, Feb. 24, is "Have a Heart" Day in Sierra Madre. Local children, under the direction of Mrs. Edward A. Davey, will sell heart tags as a part of Volunteers of America's annual drive to raise funds for destitute mothers with children and other needy people in care of the organization.

Several Sierra Madre merchants have offered prizes to the children receiving the most money for their tags.

City Nursery School Plans Puppet Show

A return engagement of the William Marionettes is planned for next Thursday, Mar. 1, in a 3:45 matinee performance at the City School auditorium.

"Paul Bunyan" is the name of the elaborately-staged and costumed marionette show being sponsored by the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association.

Last year the William Marionettes performed here in an auditorium packed with children, according to Mrs. John Carr, chairman of the nursery school committee in charge of the event.

Dudley Girod Speaks Sunday At Bethany

Guest speaker at Bethany Church for both the morning and evening services Sunday, Feb. 25, will be the Rev. Dudley Girod.

Mr. Girod, a graduate of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, is director of Christian Education at the Church of the Open Door in LA.

Many Sierra Madre young people became acquainted with Mr. Girod at summer camps sponsored by the County Christian Endeavor Union.

The Rev. Donald Rood will deliver the Wednesday evening service at Bethany Church, beginning at 7:30. The regular monthly business meeting of the church will be held following the service.

Wandalee Thompson Active In Mountain Tree Planting

Mrs. Wandalee Thompson, pint-sized Sierra Madrean, recently completed the man-sized job of planting approximately 80 potted pine, cedar, and spruce trees around the picnic grounds and parking area of Chantry Flats in the Santa Anita Canyon.

The trees—Coulter and Knobcone pine, incense cedar, and bigcone spruce—are to beautify this popular recreation spot. Soil and moisture are good, and many trees that are not bitten off by deer—they have tasted a few already—should live.

Mrs. Thompson, who lives at 100 Lowell, plans to water the trees next summer and plant more next winter. She is undertaking the project with the permission and help of the US Forest Service. Trees are provided by the county nursery at Heninger Flat.

The local woman's work was commended last week by Joe Hattersley, a resident of Pasadena currently studying for his doctor of philosophy degree at the University of California at Berkeley. Mr. Hattersley has been interested in reforestation work for more than 10 years. It was through Mr. Hattersley that Mrs. Thompson first became active in mountain tree planting.

"This ambitious project is the latest—also the most promising—in a series of volunteer mountain plantings," wrote Mr. Hattersley in a letter to the NEWS. "It is the first in the Sierra Madre area—the ones before now all have been planted above Altadena."

Mr. Hattersley relates that with him, the plantings began as a dream. "As a boyhood lover of nature," he said, "I was shocked by the series of forest fires and floods near Pasadena from 1934 to '38. One night I dreamed I had transformed one of the burned mountainsides into a forest of oaks."

Mission Playhouse Offers River Film

The film biography of a river will be unfolded in natural color motion pictures when Francis R. Line presents "Columbia River Country" at the San Gabriel Mission Playhouse Monday night, Feb. 26, under the auspices of Elmer Wilson.

Francis and Helen Line journeyed the 1270-mile length of the Columbia River to produce this film, traveling by canoe, scow, auto and bus, stern-wheeler, river barge, stream-line train, and ocean liner.

DISABLED CAR TABBED IN LOT

Three dollars of a $5 fine were suspended for a local motorist Saturday morning when he explained that he had no choice in leaving his car in the City Hall parking lot, a restricted zone.

Thomas H. Griffin, 38 N. Auburn, told City Judge John C. Mead that his distributor failed and he couldn't get the car any farther than the parking lot after receiving a push from a passing motorist.

Newsman Tells His Own Success Story

Throughout the years there have been numerous success stories of how this man or that man started from nothing and finally achieved prosperity. But the best of all success stories is where a man in a run-down condition finally gets to where he feels wonderful again.

William Bogard, newspaper reporter in Sulphur Springs, Texas, has such a story to tell. Yes, now that Mr. Bogard is taking HADACOL, he says, "I wish I could tell my story to every man and woman in the country who is now suffering as I was suffering."

Mr. Bogard was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B, B₁₂, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mr. Bogard's own statement telling how HADACOL helped him:

"Two years ago, at age 40, I was convinced that nothing remained for me in life. The most encouraging words I ever heard were: 'Maybe you will get straightened out after a while.' The only thing that really mattered to me was how I felt and the fact that my apparent decline had brought my many dreams and aspirations in total ruins before my feet."

"I heard and read many stories and testimonials concerning HADACOL, but, unfortunately for me, I didn't take any of them seriously. I considered these testimonials to be from fictitious people with imaginary ills who talked solely for money. How wrong I was! In spite of my wariness, I decided to give HADACOL a try. I took great care that no one knew I was taking it because I feared their ridicule."

"I took three bottles of HADACOL before I began to feel its effects. After that, my progress was steady and sure. My appetite picked up. I not only ate at meal time, which I had not been doing before, but I enjoyed in-between-meal snacks of delicacies which I had long since forgotten."

"I wish I could tell my story to every man and woman in the country who is suffering as I was suffering. I wish I could let them know and make them believe that what I say is all truth and no fiction."

Remember HADACOL is sold on a strict money-back guarantee. And so inexpensive. Trial-size bottle only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your drugist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, La. © 1951, The LeBlanc Corporation

THE MOUNTAIN LION

BY PERCY L. BONEBRAKE

The cattlemen decided to call in John Hodges who was reputed to be the best lion hunter in the state.

Within four days, the hunter arrived at the ranch with a pack of dogs headed by "Blue" and "Queen," a wise and experienced pair of animals that were thoroughly dependable under all circumstances.

Three days later, in the evening, a cow puncher reported that he had seen the big cat's tracks that afternoon at a spring. Hodges and his dogs arrived with the cow puncher at the spring shortly after sunrise the next morning. Leaving the other dogs in care of the cow puncher, Hodges led Blue to the spring where the wise old leader began working on the tracks which then were twenty-four hours old. Blue trailed slowly over the sun-baked ground. Meanwhile, the other dogs were held in leash until the trail became more easily followed along a shaded and damp slope. But even then, it was only Blue and Queen who kept steadfastly on the way when the trail led out over granite boulders where the sun had shone on the tracks the day before.

It was slow, heart-breaking work. The rocks were rough, and hurt the dogs' feet while the hot sun beat mercilessly on them. At times they scrambled up and over huge boulders. They ran through acres of piled rocks, and then they skirted a bluff that brought them to a place where Tom had gone down a slanting face of a rock about thirty feet. One a time, Hodges let the dogs down by a rope. The "going" became so hard that the dogs could not travel more than a mile-an-hour. Once, the cowboy had to go back to the spring for water which he brought to the dogs in a can-teen.

Thus, all day long, the dogs followed the tracks left by Tom the day before. He had gone in a circle, and at dark the dogs were within a mile of their starting point, and probably some twelve hours behind the lion. It was useless to continue on the trail at night, and so Hodges and the dogs returned to the ranch for a rest and some food.

Long before daybreak they were back on the trail only to go through another day of the same thing, and over practically the same ground. Many times it was only Blue, persistent and game old fellow, who could hold the scent and keep moving forward. Again, as night closed in, the dogs were taken to the ranch, there to have their feet greased, and to be fed and given good beds. At dawn of the third day, they were again at work but now making better progress on a trail that was growing fresher.

Tom had heard the dogs bawling on both the previous days, but that had not worried him as they did not come very close. This morning, when they opened up, he paid small attention to them. The dogs traveled in the same old circle and soon passed beyond Tom's hearing as he dozed off, not dreaming that his foes were on the tracks he had made just the day before. When again the dogs baying came faint and far away, Tom continued to sleep. Nearer came the dogs. Tom awoke, yawned, stretched and listened attentively. Still coming, the dogs turned through the boulders toward Tom's lair, as yet a mile from them. Blue and Queen were leading fast and without fault, for they were on a trail that Tom had made only six hours ago.

Louder grew the baying. Rising to his feet, Tom listened, and looked in the direction from whence came the noise. The dogs now were less than a quarter of a mile away, and as the wind changed and brought their yapping closer, Tom grew uneasy and left his hiding place. Pausing to look well in all directions, he leisurely made his way through the boulders.

Blue was the first to reach Tom's bed place. Circling, she quickly picked up the trail along which Tom was sneaking away. Racing madly on the red hot tracks, the entire dog pack set up a clamor that convinced Tom he had better start running for the highest and roughest place he could find. He was not accustomed to much running, and a place of refuge must quickly be found or he was lost.

Tom eluded the hounds for a while by leaping from boulder to boulder, or by climbing steep bluffs where they could not follow. The dogs were forced to go slowly and carefully, but Blue and Queen were not to be denied, and Hodges was always on hand to help them over dangerous places. Around, under and between the boulders they went, but never fast enough to make the lion stand at bay.

Hodges noted that the lion had traveled twice in a circle, both times leaping on a big, flat rock that was at least one hundred feet across. He helped the dogs across that rock, and then, with the wind in his favor, he hid among some rocks about twenty-five yards distant and at a point from where he could see plainly the top of the big rock.

Again the trail led in a circle. The barking of the hounds growing less distinct as they ran away from the rock, and then becoming plainer as they came back.

As Hodges listened to the growing clamor, he detected a gasping sound as of some animal hard pressed for breath. A second later and the lion leaped on the rock.

The lion hunter paused before raising his rifle. The great cat was a thing of rare beauty as it crouched atop the sun-bathed boulder.

Tom saw the man as the rifle barrel moved. He turned to leap away only to find the dogs leaping in frantic efforts to attack him. He arched his back, growled, and struck savagely at the snarling foes. His sides were heaving and his breath came in sobs as he turned his gaze for a moment on the man.

rate of $45 a day, that puts the city behind $180 for one month. "As a result of the work that has been carried on," Mr. Watson stated, "Mr. Avedesian's figures are not very far out of line with what the city's cost would be over a period of a year."

Mayor William A. Kinney remarked that when the comparable costs of a public and private agency are that close, the city has no right to be in the rubbish business.

Councilman Noren Eaton said "there's no use denying it, we should have started investigating the rubbish problem six months ago."

He moved that the contract be left to Mr. Avedesian, effective Feb. 28.

Ordinance No. 484 of the City of Sierra Madre entitled "An Ordinance of the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre relating to disasters providing for the creation of a Disaster Council, prescribing the powers and duties of the members thereof, and providing penalties for violations of such ordinance," adopted March 8, 1949, is hereby repealed provided that it is the intent of the City Council in enacting this ordinance that it shall be considered a revision and continuation of the ordinance repealed by this ordinance, and the status of volunteers shall not be affected by such repeal; nor shall civil defense and disaster mutual aid plans and agreements, rules and regulations or resolutions adopted pursuant to such repealed ordinance be affected by such repeal until amended, modified, or superseded as provided in this ordinance.

In order that the laws of this city relating to civil defense and disaster may be brought into conformity with the Federal and State plans at the earliest possible date, it is necessary that this ordinance take effect immediately.

SECTION 12. SEVERABILITY. Mrs. Ward Ends Month's Visit in Saginaw, Mich.

Mrs. Ione E. Ward, publisher of the NEWS, returned to Sierra Madre early last Thursday morning after a month's visit in Saginaw, Mich., where she witnessed the marriage of her daughter, Elsie Ann Ward, to Arthur Adams Ernst of Washington, DC.

The wedding vows were recited, Feb. 10, at the home of Kempton, where Mrs. Ward was houseguest during the month. Mrs. Kempton is the sister of Mrs. Ward.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ernst are now honeymooning in New Orleans. They will live in Arlington, Va., where Mr. Ernst is associated with the Guided Missiles Department of the US Bureau of Standards.

Mrs. Ward reports her friends and relatives in Michigan were reluctant to believe Southern Californians are basking in sunshine. During her visit east, the temperature hovered right around zero most of the time. And on two mornings, the mercury dipped to a frigid 17 degrees below zero. Mrs. Ward made both legs of the journey by air.

Line Officers Party Night Draws Many Valley Chapter Guests

One of the most important evenings in Eastern Star circles was held Monday night at the Masonic Temple, Line Officers Party Night.

Many officers and members of the district and nearby chapters increased the attendance to more than one hundred and twenty.

Line Officers—Milo Murray, Associate Matron; Wallace Scott, Associate Patron; Harriet Beard, Conductress and Gayle Moore, Associate Conductress were advanced a station for the evening and visiting dignitaries occupied other chairs.

Mrs. Grace Hinton, worthy matron presented red roses to her associate matron, Milo Murray.

Mrs. Donna Robertson assisted by May Shearer was responsible for the refreshments which followed the work. A George Washington motif was used for table decorations, hachets and three-cornered hats. Cherry tarts topped the enjoyable lunch.

The Sierra Madre party night was the first to be held in the district. Monrovia Line Officers Party Night was held Tuesday night and the next will be Aladena, May 3rd.

with your help

It takes more than our government's fine medical treatment to ease a disabled veteran over the rough spots. Often days seem long, recovery slow, the future hopeless.

At such times, a helping hand, an understanding word—knowing that somebody cares—is the best medicine of all.

Your Red Cross workers now provide this neighborly interest, this miracle-working medicine for 134,000 hospitalized veterans. For veterans and their families, your Red Cross also gives emergency financial assistance, helps with personal and family problems, engages in recreational and welfare programs.

Support these worthwhile activities by giving to your Red Cross. Give now—and give generously!

Raiders Lack Scoring Punch, Defeated 5 to 1

Fifteen local players left on base spelled defeat for the Sierra Madre VFW Raiders Sunday as they bowed, 5 to 1, to the Harbor Giants.

Although the Raiders equalled the Giants in hits, 8 apiece, the local horseholders were unable to bring their men home. In the 6th, 7th, and 8th, bases were loaded, but only one run was salvaged. In the 2nd, 5th, and 9th, there were two men on—but no runs.

Strike outs and pop flies halted all possible rallies. Roy, centerfielder for the Giants, was a "thorn" in Sierra Madre's side all afternoon, his two doubles and a homer spelling the difference between a 5 to 1 and 1 to 1 final score.

Several nice fielding plays were recorded by both teams, but Franco's three running catches in left field won fielding honors for the Raiders.

In the absence of the regular association umpire, Ed Wodrich took over behind the plate and called an accurate game. Mr. Wodrich has served as base umpire for nearly all Sierra Madre games. Henry Nord volunteered to take over base-calling chores.

Larry Shepherd, VFW team manager, said there would be no game next Sunday, Feb. 25, but on March 4, the Raiders will meet another strong club, Cal-Oaks.

Benefit Game Sunday to Aid VFW Raiders

There will be no baseball game in Sierra Madre Sunday, Feb. 25.

Instead, local ball fans are asked to attend the Southern California Baseball Association's medical fund benefit game at Wrigley Field on that day.

The game will be two teams made up of Coast League players and a few major leaguers. Stan Hack, new manager of the LA Angels, and Fred Haney, manager of the Hollywood Stars, will head the teams.

Sunday's benefit game will signal the start of baseball season in the area, and a corps of association umpires—probably 25—will do the calling.

Injury expenses of teams in the association exceed $5000 each year, Larry Shepherd, VFW Raider manager pointed out this week.

"If we are unable to raise enough money to keep the medical fund going, all injuries will have to be paid for by the players themselves or by the teams' sponsors," he said. "This would put a load of approximately $400 per team per year."

The Sierra Madre Raiders is a member team of the association and will benefit from the game Sunday.

All Sierra Madre Boy Scouts in uniform will be admitted to the game free, if accompanied by a ticket-holding adult.

'Hansel, Gretel' Due Tomorrow

Members of the cast of "Hansel and Gretel," play being presented by the Junior League of Pasadena, are through their final week of rehearsals and ready for their first performance of the children's play tomorrow, Feb. 23, 4 p. m. at the Junior Museum Theater, Pasadena Art Institute, 46 N. Los Robles.

Two subsequent performances, also open to the public through membership in the Junior Theater Association, are scheduled for Thursday, March 1, and Friday, March 2, at the same time and place.

C. J. Pegler, city treasurer, attended the annual meeting of the Sierra Madre-Lamanda Citrus Association last Friday—a meeting celebrating the 50th year of the association.

Mr. Pegler, who was president of the organization, last year, is the only man still alive who attended the first meeting 50 years ago.

And he has been active in the group down through the years. The Sierra Madrean personally photographed the scenes now used on three of the 14 "brands" of the citrus association. "A 'brand' is the colorful label that is stamped on the end of each crate of fruit.

The brands Mr. Pegler photographed are called the "Trail," the "Canyon," and "Mt. Lowe."

Booked for Washington Lecture

Mrs. Hjordis Kittel Parker, (Mrs. Don), is leaving next Sunday for Washington, D. C., where she will appear on the National Geographic lecture series. Eighteen lectures are scheduled for the year and Mrs. Parker will be the only woman. The lecture will be heard in Constitution Hall, Friday, March 2nd.

A dinner has been planned in Mrs. Parker's honor and a reception following the lecture.

After the Washington engagement Mrs. Parker flies to Denver, Colo., for three lectures sponsored by the Denver Museum of Natural History. All of the lectures are with Mrs. Parker's first film, "Norway, Her Life and People."

Mrs. Parker has been much in demand this season with both of her films and by next fall will be booked in Southern California with the new film which she made last year.

'Harvey' Now At Playhouse

"Harvey," Mary Chase's Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy, opened last week at the Pasadena Playhouse with Oliver Prickett, Madge Blake, Douglas McEachin, and Eileen O'Brien playing lead roles.

Elwood P. Dowd and his oversize white rabbit friend, Harvey, have become the Damocles and Pythias to a complete generation via the footlight focus of the original Chase script. The play "Harvey" has topped all major awards of the American theater world.

Montana Picnic Set for Sunday

Virginia Dyer, president of the Montana State Society this week reminded former residents of Montana of the annual picnic Sunday, Feb. 25, at Bixby Park, Long Beach.

Catering service for the event has been offered by the Tichenor School Parent-Teacher Association. A program is planned.

Mrs. P. Sheehan, Former Resident, Dies in New York

Mrs. Lee Shippey received word this week of the passing away in New York, Feb. 9, of Mrs. Perlie Poore Sheehan, former resident of Sierra Madre. Mrs. Sheehan was the wife of Perlie Sheehan, author of the famous story, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." Mr. Sheehan, who died several years ago, at one time was associated with the New York Herald and was a regular columnist in the NEWS. For many years, he served as master of ceremonies during the Sunday supper parties at the Wistaria Vine. He was active in the Episcopal Church here and personally constructed the bench and shelter still standing in front of the church.

Parking Nixed For Parts of Three Streets

Parking was outlawed for portions of three Sierra Madre streets by action of the City Council last week. On Montecito Court, parking is now prohibited on the north and west sides from Auburn avenue to a point approximately 256 feet south of Montecito. Twenty-minute parking is still permissible for loading and unloading on the south and east sides of Montecito Court. On Windsor Lane, parking is allowed only on the east side from Montecito Court to Montecito. On Montecito, parking is prohibited on the south side from Auburn to Baldwin. The action—at least all but the Montecito regulations—had been requested in a petition signed by over a dozen merchants.

Robertsons Note Silver Wedding

Sierra Madre friends of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robertson, and their son, J. Craig McLaughlin, will be interested to know that the Robertsons recently celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary at their Portuguese Bend home in Palos Verdes Estates. Mr. McLaughlin and his wife, Peg, also observed their ninth wedding anniversary. The McLaughlins reside at China Lake where he is with the Naval Ordnance Testing Station. While living in Sierra Madre for twenty-three years, Mrs. Robertson distinguished herself in civic and club work and served as Woman's Club president. Mr. Robertson recently was installed as president of the South Bay Shrine Club.

Hospital Group Praises Work Of Local Club

Lucille Pratt, coordinator of volunteers for the Children's Hospital Society, has commended the special work being done for the hospital by the Philanthropy Section of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club this year. The project of specialized sewing is carried on each Monday at the home of Mrs. William Rhodes, 702 Manzanita, when layette garments are made by the group, as well as similar sewing for Navajo Indian babies. To date, the greatest number of garments have been completed by Mesdames Woolley, Harris, Bell, Gossard, Lingle, Rigglesburger, Summers, and Rhodes. Material is furnished by the Woman's Club for the hand-finished garments. While articles for the hospital must be made to comply with regulations issued by the nursing department, garments in good condition are being urgently selected for the box that will go to the Indian children next week. Articles will be called for at once by Mrs. Rhodes, or Betty Summers, and Sierra Madren's cooperation will be appreciated.

MILLIONS IN LUMBER

Lumber is bulky. We carry stocks so large that we use 28 acres in Los Angeles, 38 acres at Terminal Island, and 28 acres in our 18 branch yards. This adds up to an inventory valued in the millions. The benefit to you as a buyer is that you can get service which otherwise wouldn't be available. And you can depend on proper grades. In fact, our whole aim is that Hammond shall continue to be the most dependable lumber company.
